Global Corporate Travel and Expense Reimbursement Policy

Document ID: POL-HR-2026-04 | Department: Human Resources | Tier: Internal (Tier 2)

Effective Date: January 1, 2026 | Target Audience: All Global Employees

1. Air Travel Guidelines:

Employees must book economy class for all domestic flights and international flights under 6 hours.

Business class travel is strictly permitted only for international itineraries exceeding 8 consecutive hours.

All flights must be booked at least 14 days in advance through the corporate travel portal.

Lodging, Meals, and Per-Diem Allowances

Page 2 — Expense Thresholds and Receipt Rules

2. Hotel & Lodging Allowances:

Maximum allowable room rate in Tier 1 cities (New York, London, Tokyo, San Francisco) is $300/night.

Maximum allowable room rate in Tier 2 cities is $200/night.

3. Meal & Incidental Expenses (M&IE):

Daily meal allowance is capped at $75 per day for domestic travel and $100 per day for international travel.

Itemized receipts are mandatory for any single transaction exceeding $25.

Alcohol expenses are non-reimbursable without prior written Director-level approval.